
The following links are to a news websites with information on an issue concerning teens and cell phones. The issue is called “sexting”, a term derived from the use of text and picture messaging to send content and photos of a sexual nature via cell phone. Some teens have been charged with creating or possessing child pornography as a result of taking or sending these messages. Please click the link below to get more information.

www.cbsnews.com/stories/2009/01/15/national/main4723161.shtml

<http://abcnews.go.com/GMA/story?id=7337547&page=1>